Description

Immaculate Conception. Oil on canvas. Colonial school, 18th century.

Oil on canvas depicting the Virgin Mary among angels, in a landscape and standing on a crescent moon, dressed in a white tunic and a blue mantle, according to the usual iconography of the Immaculate Conception in the Spanish school, especially since the works of Murillo. It should be noted, however, that instead of stars around the head, there is here a series of angels' heads, which is unusual. -
