Description

This profile of a man is a plaster bas-relief from an artist's studio. It was made by a prestigious artist signed Wladyslaw Gruberski, in 1906. It has its original patina. The work is impregnated, made with great realism and a beautiful technique. We have not managed to identify the man in this bas-relief. It is accompanied by a natural wood frame such as pitch pine which goes perfectly with this work. Wladyslaw Gruberski was a Polish sculptor. His work was part of the sculpture event in the art competition at the 1928 Summer Olympics. For the condition, note scratches from rubbing, stains, all visible in the photos, this bas-relief remains in a more than good general condition. Our many photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not
