Frame: 57 x 66 cm. Boris Mestchersky was born in Liège on September 21, 1963. He spent his first year in this city, then it was Spain, then in adolescence the return to Belgium to Liège more precisely. Today he lives in the small Meuse town of Huy. He studied art at Saint Luc Liège and engraving at the Beaux-Arts in Liège, but the one who really took him on the path of painting and who made him discover its mysteries was his mother Vera Mestchersky, herself a painter. Boris Mestchersky devoted himself entirely to painting. His technique is totally centered on color and light.
