Description

A silk tapestry embroidered with polychrome threads depicting a rural landscape, where traditional houses blend harmoniously with expanses of fields and bamboo groves.

The frame and the back of the tapestry, designed to protect its delicacy, are embellished with naturalistic details.

The work is already prepared for hanging, thanks to the rings sewn on the rear silk frame.

Period: Meiji late 19th century.

Dimensions: 199 x 136 cm.

Condition: Excellent condition. There are slight frayings of the fabric compatible with the age.
