Description

This sumptuous 19th century mirror, with its imposing dimensions (86 cm x 140 cm), perfectly embodies the elegance and know-how of the craftsmen of this period. Its carved wooden and gilded stucco frame features refined ornamentation with floral motifs, foliage and scrolls, giving this piece a classic and sophisticated charm. The pediment features a carved central cartouche, framed by arabesque motifs and symmetrical foliage elements, reinforcing the noble and majestic appearance of this mirror. Its mercury glass, characteristic of period mirrors, brings a unique depth and a slight patina due to time, highlighting its authenticity and its old character.
