Description

Large planter or centerpiece silver-plated metal stand, cobalt blue tinted crystal glass. Hallmarks on the reverse WMF ostrich mark. Germany late 19th century or early 20th century. This is the largest model produced by the very rare manufacturer. Neoclassical-inspired decor of openwork pilasters from which hang garlands of flowers 2 handles in acanthus scrolls and intertwined water leaves all resting on four feet with lion heads and claws. Good condition of the set perfect quality silvering glass in good condition small chips on the edge barely visible and small scratches. A beautiful example of quality silverware in a large model.
