Description

This blown glass vase, made by Claude Morin in the 1980s, immediately catches the eye with its vibrant color and dynamic patterns. Its bright yellow, enhanced with diagonally engraved traces, gives a feeling of movement and modernity. During the 1980s, glasswork experienced a creative surge, mixing chromatic audacity and textural effects. Morin followed this trend by exploring the play of light and depth, creating pieces that are both expressive and refined. This vase perfectly illustrates this approach, combining technical mastery and contemporary aesthetics.
