Description

Large and beautiful decorative painting "Venus au miroir" presented in a large Louis XV style gilded wooden frame with ears from the end of the 19th century. A colorful painting in full Baroque spirit in a beautiful detailed composition in a clever architectural atmosphere and around the central subject Venus from behind, naked looking at herself in a mirror that mischievous cherubs present to her, she is lying on thick fabrics, her arm hugging a bolster under a dark crimson red canopy in a park perspective surrounded by statues, highlighted by a base in fluted honeycomb steps on which an urn with a handle placed completes the decor, while two doves in flight twirl above an overturned dish. A work very much in the spirit and having in addition the freshness and contrasts of a Work not
