Description

Soup tureen with tray. Silver. Possibly Spain, 20th century.

Contrasting marks.

Silver soup tureen with parchment-finished handles (and with vegetal elements in the base) and domed shapes that extend to both the base and the lid, the latter finished with a scalloped finish. The lid is scalloped. It bears the initials of an owner on the front. The tray repeats the waves of the other piece and has two handles also in the form of parchment. The base of the soup tureen and the tray bear contrasting marks, without identification.
