Description

This sculpture comes from an artist's studio, it was probably made in the 1950s-1960s. It represents a female nude, an anatomy. It is a reworking of an antique subject. Everything was made in a single-block stone, executed with great finesse. It was stored in a garden, hence the polychromy and the greenish traces. It has a lot of allure, perfect for a cabinet of curiosities. We report rubbing, missing parts in various places, yellowish stains, green deposits. The work remains however in a generally correct condition. We sell it in its natural juice untouched. We carried out a summary cleaning. It weighs a significant weight (between 30 and 50 kilos) We will not deliver by post for this type of item too fragile but we work with carriers, please contact us for a quote.
