

Art Nouveau 18k Gold And Silver Convertible Necklace-brooch, Set With Rose-cut Diamonds And Na

2 100 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Art Nouveau 18K Gold and Silver Convertible Necklace-Brooch, Set with Rose-Cut Diamonds and Natural Pearls

A magnificent convertible piece from the Art Nouveau period (1890-1910), this jewel can be worn as both a necklace and a brooch, showcasing the elegance and refinement of Belle Époque jewelry.

An Exceptional and Versatile Jewel

- o This necklace can be worn as a brooch or pendant, thanks to a removable clasp system that allows the silver chain to be detached, transforming the piece according to preference.
- o Made of 18K gold (on the back) and silver (for the stone settings), a traditional choice in jewelry

Dealer

MGA gallery

La passion de l'argenterie

Tel : +32 477 63 01 17

Rue Watteuu 9 et 25

Bruxelles 1000

from this period to enhance the brilliance of diamonds.

- o The rose-cut diamonds are of exceptional quality, well-proportioned, with minimal inclusions, and the larger central stones provide outstanding sparkle.
- o The pendant is adorned with natural pearls, adding a touch of softness and sophistication.

Specifications:

- o Period: Art Nouveau (1890-1910)
- o Material: 18K gold (back of the pendant) and silver (settings and chain)
- o Stones: Rose-cut diamonds, well-proportioned and with minimal inclusions
- o Ornamentation: Natural pearls
- o Convertible Design: Can be worn as a necklace or brooch
- o Pendant Dimensions: 5 cm x 5 cm
- o Necklace Length: 44 cm with the silver chain
- o Total Weight: 15.9 grams

A True Symbol of Art Nouveau Jewelry

This exquisite piece perfectly embodies the naturalistic and fluid aesthetic of the Art Nouveau movement, with its elegant arabesques and nature-inspired design. A refined and timeless jewel, ideal for collectors and connoisseurs of exceptional antique jewelry.