Description

This 19th-century bronze statuette faithfully reflects antique models. It depicts a young man, partially draped over one shoulder, standing in a relaxed yet controlled posture. His serene expression and finely detailed curls are reminiscent of classical aesthetics.The circular base, adorned with a subtle frieze, provides visual stability while enhancing the statue's elegant silhouette. The nuanced patina adds depth to the bronze, accentuating the sculpted contours of the body.Perfect for a collection or refined interior décor, this piece embodies the 19th-century appreciation for antiquity and the meticulous craftsmanship of the era.
