Description

High in color for this painting representing the village of Carros in the Alpes Maritimes by the painter Thierry Grenier of the Rouen school. The path leading to the village is lined with trees and vegetation that the artist treated in a "Vangoghesque" expression with a shades of blue and a swirling movement. The village perched on the hill with rectilinear houses. Modern gilded wood frame. Period 1990-1995. Delivery by carrier 100 euros in France, 200 euros in the EU and 500 euros rest of the world. Architect of painting, builder of painting, Thierry Grenier marks out the landscapes of the Normandy coast. Lover of maritime borders and deserted vastness, silence and tranquility are the basis of his aesthetic. Very structured decorations tell the story of a place, a season, an era. It is an infinite
