Description

This pair of porcelain vases, mounted on a finely crafted bronze base, demonstrates the refinement of Chinese productions intended for export to the West. Their slender silhouette and delicate decoration are part of an artistic tradition where every detail tells a story. The body of the vases is decorated with scenes from daily life, enhanced with floral motifs and touches of gold that add depth and relief. The thin, elongated neck is adorned with flowering branches, a motif often associated with prosperity and harmony in Chinese art. These pieces rest on finely crafted bronze mounts, which give them elegant stability and recall the enthusiasm of European artisans for Asian objects, often reinterpreted and adapted to the tastes of the Western market. At the base of each vase, a signature testifies to its origin and
