Description

Necklace made up of a row of falling baroque cultured pearls, white to cream-colored orient. The clasp is a spring ring in yellow gold. Period: 20th century Main material: yellow gold, 750 thousandths, 18 carats. Proportions: Length: approximately 54.5 cm, pearl diameter: from 3/3.5 mm to approximately 9.5/10 mm. Net weight: approximately 24.2 g. Re-threaded on new silk thread. Authentic antique jewelry - Work from the 1960s. Our opinion: The cultured pearl that adorns this vintage necklace has nuances in terms of both shape and color, which gives it its charm and originality. Due to its spring ring clasp, this necklace can be combined with another pearl necklace with the same type of clasp in order to form either a cultured pearl sautoir or a duo necklace of white pearls and gray pearls, for
