Description

A curiosity that this rustic living room table in steps in two steps handmade in a remarkable and healthy veined blond walnut. This useful, functional and elegant piece of furniture is of purely composite style; indeed born in the creative head of a good craftsman carpenter or as we often say cabinetmaker this pretty companion piece of furniture is composed of a low part with fluted sheathed feet decorated with a belt (laterally pegged traditional) with large equidistant grooves in the spirit of Louis XVI, sides and back and front of a pretty "art deco" pluteau band of stylized flowers and acanthus and two triangle chevron patterns of a beautiful sculpture; the same for the back band with generous stylized flowers in swags; the top of the upper step supported by two fluted sheathed feet just like the rear by going up frames the bottom of the furniture, the thin fluted longitudinally raised belt with on the sides thicker structural crosspieces ending in a rounded shape joining the groove of the top of the front foot... In short, a neat piece of furniture, original on all sides and well designed, Useful and easy to place in a living room at the end of a sofa, as a small serving trolley or quite simply as a large bedside table with a niche for books and a tray for a lamp, as for use at the end of a sofa... Furniture said exang de parasite in very good condition and amusing in its traditionality...
