

19th Century Nest Of 4 Floral Painted Tables

820 EUR

Description

This late 19th-century nest of four stacking French occasional tables is a high-quality piece featuring beautifully floral-painted rectangular tops. The set consists of four matching interlocking tables, each supported by slender turned legs and trestle bases, which are united by a stretcher for added stability. In excellent, strong, and completely original condition, these tables display a lovely warm color and patina that enhance their charm. Originating from France circa 1880, this nest of tables is both functional and decorative, making it a perfect addition to any interior space.
