

Foot Shackles For Death Row Convicts, 19th Century

650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 68 cm

Description

These wrought iron restraints date from the 19th century and were intended to immobilize prisoners awaiting execution or transfer. The rudimentary locking mechanism testifies to their era and their strictly functional use. The visible oxidation and traces of wear confirm their authenticity and antiquity.
