Description
-------------

Austro-Hungarian centerpiece in solid silver (800 thousandths) and cut crystal, Louis XVI style, late 19th century Superb centerpiece in solid silver with a title of 800 thousandths and cut crystal, dating from the end of the 19th century, under the Austro-Hungarian Empire. This model is made in the Louis XVI style, characterized by its refinement, its classical motifs and its elegant symmetry. The silver frame has an openwork decoration inspired by the neoclassical style, with garlands, ribbon bows and finely chiseled plant motifs. The removable handle features sculpted details in the shape of laurel leaves, typical of the Louis XVI style. The cut crystal, entirely hand-crafted, offers a refined transparency and highlights the delicacy of the goldsmith's work. The centerpiece is presented in some photos with
