Description

Art Nouveau lion head ring in 18 carat gold, diamonds Superb Art Nouveau style ring, from the Art Nouveau-Renaissance period, representing a majestic lion's head finely sculpted in an 18 carat gold setting. A symbol of strength and protection, this iconic animal motif is enhanced by a refined setting of old-cut diamonds, one of which, more imposing, is positioned in the lion's mouth, while the eyes are also adorned with diamonds, giving the piece a striking shine. Of great elegance and a strong character, this ring perfectly embodies the organic and fluid aesthetic of Art Nouveau, while drawing inspiration from Renaissance influences, typical of the artistic revival of the time. It is distinguished by remarkable goldsmith work, with sculpted details that give it a unique
