Description

Chalice and its paten in finely chiseled silver gilt, flattened knot mounted on a round foot decorated with the Chrism, Minerva hallmark and silversmith Henri Nesme*, presented in a case, circa 1950 20th century. This chalice is in good condition and is of very good quality (it is weighted). The paten (probably not original, but suits it well) is not hallmarked but is most certainly in silver. Please note: some small scratches and wear on the gilt, dirt on the paten, slight wear of time, see photos. * Henri Nesme, who died in 1935, has the hallmark HN on either side of a chalice. He carved his hallmark on July 25, 1924, crossed out on December 31, 1964. Succession of Maison Berger-Nesme: Goldsmith's house founded in Lyon by Henri Nesme, descendant of a family of goldsmiths
