Georges Feher, born György Fehér on January 22, 1929, in Miskolc, Hungary, was a figurative painter and lithographer from the School of Paris. He moved to France in 1954, initially settling in Paris, where he lived successively at 2 Rue des Beaux-Arts and 23 Rue Oudinot. In 1972, he left the capital to establish himself in Montcourt-Fromonville, in the Seine-et-Marne region. Georges Feher passed away on December 10, 2015, and is buried in the Montcourt-Fromonville cemetery.
