Description
-------------

Elegant bronze sculpture representing a young man, holding his sword in a pose full of vivacity and movement. The expression of his face, the refined work of the draperies and the meticulous details of his costume testify to the talent of Sylvain Kinsburger, a renowned sculptor of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. This piece, signed on the terrace, perfectly illustrates the naturalist style and the finesse of execution characteristic of the artist. The dark patina highlights the contrasts and underlines the richness of the textures. A collector's work that will appeal to art and history lovers, ideal for a gallery or a refined interior.
