Description

Elegant Vicentine chest of drawers from the early 19th century, crafted from fine walnut wood. This piece stands out for its harmonious and refined lines, featuring saber-shaped legs that add lightness and elegance to its structure. The entire surface is enhanced by inlays and light wood fillets, emphasizing the contrast of tones and the craftsmanship of the period. With well-balanced proportions, the chest measures 117 cm in width, 48 cm in depth, and 96 cm in height, making it both a functional and aesthetically sophisticated piece. Perfect for enriching classic interiors or adding a touch of refinement to modern settings
