Description

Elegant Venetian chest of drawers from the early 19th century, crafted from fine walnut wood. This refined piece features two spacious drawers, beautifully adorned with delicate floral inlays that highlight the craftsmanship of the period. A particularly distinctive element is the concealed upper pull-out shelf, adding both functionality and sophistication to the design. With its elegant lines and well-balanced proportions, this chest of drawers is a highly charming piece, perfect for enriching a classic interior or bringing a touch of elegance to a more contemporary setting.
