Description

Elegant 18th century chest of drawers in painted wood. It rests on fluted spindle legs, topped with carved crosspieces and decorated with ribbon decoration. It opens on the front with 2 drawers simulating 4. They are carved with a ribbon decoration in their center and on the sides. The whole is topped with a carved tray on its perimeter and includes its original brass handles and lock entries. The chest of drawers is entirely patinated and painted in a wood-effect way which gives it a very decorative side. Quality work in very good condition.
