

China - Horseman Archer - Han Dynasty -tl

3 000 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Length : 27,5 cm

Height : 30 cm

Description

Horseman archer and his mount in terracotta. The rider riding the horse wears a long, crossed black and turquoise tunic with a red collar. He carries a quiver of arrows on his back. He held a bow in his right hand. The red horse is saddled and wears a white saddle blanket, it is in a waiting position. The horse's mane and tail are very representative of the period. Remains of polychromy. Very good balance of the proportions of the horse and the rider. Good general condition. A thermoluminescence test certifying the last firing date accompanies the object. Origin: China

Period: Han Dynasty (206 BC - 220).

Dimensions: Height: 30 cm; Length: 27.5 cm.

Dealer

Galerie Raoul Dutilleul

Arts Asiatiques et Porcelaines de Tournai

Mobile : +32 474 472 168

24,Rue des Chapeliers

Tournai 7500