Description

"Mid-19th-century Emilian table, round in shape, with a diameter of 56 cm and a height of 79 cm. The top features a refined inlay in the shape of a star, made of burl wood, framed by a geometric design that enhances the beauty of the wood. The lower band houses a single drawer, elegantly integrated into the structure. The central turned support extends into three curved legs, providing stability and elegance to the piece. A highly charming item, showcasing the craftsmanship of the period."
