Description

Original Louis-Philippe desk, from the 19th century, with a cardboard tier. It is in mahogany veneer, the top has been redone in empire green skai as well as the fronts of the boxes. It offers plenty of storage with 5 boxes, 7 drawers and 2 vertical lockers. The latter, by closing with a key, block the opening of the cardboard boxes in the upper part. A retractable shelf on the right side also allows you to increase the work surface. The whole is in good condition with all the locks and keys that work. The top is quite low, we add glass risers to facilitate the passage of the legs.
