Description

Beautiful door knocker for a French private mansion, a large ring hammer, thick and extremely neat wrought iron: upper part with fretel cut into the shape of clocheton is partially tinned, chiseled in dotted lines, two buttons, and a heavy turned spherical hammer.

We are joining a superb tool-cut plaque, an iron lace, which comes from another address, but perfectly matches style and size, we do not have the anvil: (a large round nail), nor fixing bolt.

Good condition, well returned to cleaning.

Some light forging imperfections on back... Look carefully at the photos....

Dimensions: Hammer: 21.5cm x 16cm. Door thickness: approximately 5cm. Weight: 1,600gr.
