Description

Ornamental Empire style desk lamp in gilded chiseled bronze, gold painted sheet metal lampshade on antique green, carefully designed this quality lamp with fine retouching and well-cored rests on an oval molded base with gadroons and a support decorated with stylized acanthus leaves in corolla supporting in imitation of the Premier Empire lamps an oil lamp-style body with an eagle's head, at its end a pearl bobèche supporting a false electrified candle. Its beautiful oval lampshade in antique green sheet metal with a pattern of golden scrolls sliding in height for the comfort of the diffused light, blocked by a bronze palmette key, the square section axis ending in a ball. Electrically revised this beautiful quality lamp published in the 1960s is faithful to the so-called carcelle lamps of the
