One of them is made of a printed textile on a light background and a light wooden handle finished with a silver metal button in the shape of a cane and decorated with flowers. The hallmarks indicate that it is made of "nickel silver" or "German silver" (an alloy of zinc, copper and nickel also called alpaca). The other umbrella, with a brown fabric and a handle perhaps made of wood, and a spherical pommel with flowers and spirals that is perhaps silver in color (it has no hallmarks). -
