Description

Beautiful large pair of hammered copper vases by the famous German factory WMF. A beautiful example of the Jugendstil movement in Germany, equivalent to our art-nouveau period for these large, very elegant vases hammered all over the vase to give this "scale" effect. A patina has been applied to the hollow parts. 2 large brass handles with scrolls enhance the pieces. These pieces are from the 1900s and well referenced (see last photos of pieces in the same spirit). Pieces signed with the ostrich stamp (WMF signature from this period). Perfect condition, no dents, 50 cm high. Very original and sought-after old pieces.
