"I know, having heard it sometimes, that some find my sculpture very dark. It is probably so at first sight, but if we take the time to look again, a new feeling can be born. I hope that my work invites us to accept ourselves as we are and keeps us from the overly great desire to hide ourselves from ourselves. It highlights the beauty of the traces of time. Everyone can recognize themselves in it as in a mirror if they wish, if they are ready to see themselves in it." Marc Petit
