Description

This ceramic tile by Les Argonautes, made in Vallauris around 1960, perfectly illustrates the bold and textured style of the workshop. The composition features a stylized floral motif, dominated by deep shades of blue, brown and gray, creating a striking relief effect. The shiny enamel and contrasting textures reveal meticulous craftsmanship, characteristic of the creations of the time. A true testimony to the revival of artistic ceramics in the south of France, this unique piece will appeal to enthusiasts and collectors.
