Description

Nymph on a dolphin - terracotta circa 1980 - Angela Cassanello 1921 2003 unsigned Angela Cassanello, born in 1921, is an Italian painter and sculptor. Her art ranges from figuration to abstraction, but is distinguished by the expressiveness of her forms, a fluidity of movement and her treatment of the human and animal figure. Among her notable works are bronze sculptures such as Le Félin and Femme qui court; Running, as well as paintings and watercolors such as Christ on the Cross and Portrait of a Young Woman. Her creations have been exhibited and sold at various auctions and art galleries. Her sculptures, made of bronze and marble, are particularly appreciated for their ability to transmit movement and deep sensations through the material, creating a contrast between
