Beautiful extendable molded and carved wooden dining table. Crafted in the UK around 1830 in Victorian style. This table has a circular top and underneath a sturdy carved barrel that rests on a square base with four claw feet and casters.

This piece has been completely restored and four new leaves have been made so that the table can be extended to its full length. The top and pedestal can be openend to receive the four leaves and make a large dinner table of 358 cm (see pictures).
