Description

Cristallo dining table, designed by Egidio Di Rosa and Pier Alessandro Giusti, circa 1987. Its sculptural, adjustable base is crafted from a single block of Carrara marble, split into two undulating forms that can be positioned closer or further apart. A glass top rests elegantly on these elements, framed by marble, creating a striking balance between the lightness of glass and the raw presence of stone. A remarkable piece, both sculptural and timeless. Manufacturer : Ultima Edizione, circa 1987.
