Description

This large ceramic vase, signed Madoura and dating from the 1960s, embodies a sober and organic aesthetic, characteristic of the workshop founded by Suzanne and Georges Ramié in Vallauris. Its subtle enameling, playing on brown tones with vibrant green nuances, demonstrates a mastery of firing effects and textural contrasts. The slender and slightly irregular shape reinforces its artisanal aspect, making this piece a fine example of Madoura's ceramic production during this period.
