Description

Beautiful apple green color full of life for this oval jadeite cabochon, highlighted in a chiseled and pierced platinum setting with divided claws, shoulders set with 4 brilliant-cut diamonds on each side.
The cabochon is slightly convex below, a sign of its age, it does not show any abrasions and has a beautiful polish.
The ring bears illegible markings on the inside, setting tested platinum with touchstone.

Superb condition and quality for this Art Deco period ring, circa 1930.
