Description

Old poster probably for a cabaret by the famous illustrator and painter Adolphe Léon Willette (1857-1926). This poster by Adolphe Willette is done in a monochrome red/brown shade, typical of illustrations of the period. Here are some notable elements:

- o Main subject: an elegant woman in the Belle Époque style, wearing a large hat decorated with feathers, drinking from a glass.
- o She holds a cane and a bag as well as her dog who seem to interact with her. These characters recall Willette's humor and whimsy.
- o Composition: the background is blurred and sketched in a circular shape, focusing attention on the main scene.
- o Signature: we can clearly see "A. Willette" at the bottom right. This poster could be an illustration for a cabaret, an advertisement or a humorous scene, Willette
