An attractive pair of ink drawings. These two Surrealist-inspired drawings are each presented in an original glass frame.

The first depicts a woman with a bird, reminiscent of the work of Ljuba, Leonor Fini, André Masson, Mileva Guita, Jean Cocteau and others.

The second shows a bird with a stylised fish, reminiscent of the work of Federico García Lorca, Paul Klee, Joan Miró, André Masson and others.

These drawings are located in Paris, one dated 1976 and the other 1977, and they are signed but the signature is difficult to decipher: V Guido , V Guilo, V Gnido, V Gnilo, etc: so to be determined.
