Description

Charming 18th century portrait of a woman, from the Louis XV period. The woman strongly resembles the queen of France, Marie Leszczynska (1703-1768). She wears very beautiful clothes, including a coat lined with ermine, symbol of royalty. This oil on canvas in pretty good condition, small old restorations are present. There are also some very slight shortcomings. The work is sold in its juice, with its frame of eighteenth origin in fairly good condition. Visible dimensions: 37.5 x 30.5 cm Frame dimensions: 47 x 40 cm Photos are taken in natural light. Careful packaging. Shipping costs at the expense of the buyer. I remain at your disposal for any additional information and photos.
