Pair of Italian centerpieces from the first half of the 20th century. Objects in gilded and chiseled bronze with a square plinth base veneered in marble. Centerpieces of fabulous decor, ideal for displaying above a fireplace or desk, for antique dealers and interior designers. Baccellato tazzas with lateral sockets adorned with zoomorphic elements, in classic style, of excellent quality. Objects of beautiful size and proportion that show small signs of aging, marble with small chips and signs of conservative restoration (see photo). In beautiful patina, overall in good state of conservation.
