Description

Mirror. Carved and gilded wood. Spain, 19th century.
Rectangular wall mirror with a carved and gilded wooden frame, with some openwork areas. It is topped with a crest, with architectural and vegetal decoration (flower garlands, leaves, etc.) arranged around (and symmetrically) a curved shape reminiscent of the 18th century Rococo rocailles. Also note the wavy edges of the frame in this area. In the rest, apart from a usual composition of smooth moldings, we find a series of vegetal and architectural motifs (foliage, leaves, volutes, etc.), some details of which show, again, a certain Rococo influence. The piece clearly shows the influence of the 18th century Rococo works, as we have already indicated, but with a more common arrangement in 19th century works. In
