Description

Circa 1925 France An astonishing Art Deco purse in polychrome glass bead embroidery, said to be available, that is to say before assembly.

Embroidery on a black tarlatan tulle in a circular shape presented on both sides, one of which is fringed. A generous floral design with architectural curves typical of the Art Deco period. Several tears in the tulle, otherwise very good condition for the beaded part. Unpublished object for reassembly or to present in a display case of curiosities. Dimensions: 43 cm x 27 cm. Diameter of each circle approximately 22 cm.
