Silver Plate Co was one of the first companies to become part of the International Silver Company in 1898. Immediately thereafter (1899), Middletown Silver Plate was closed and production moved to the Wilcox plant. Superior Silver Co was a registered trademark of Middleton manufactured by Wilcox. The "half circle" mark was introduced in 1921 and registered in 1923. The plant was closed in 1941 due to the shortage of metal during World War II. After the war, Wilcox patterns were manufactured at other International Silver Company plants.
