Description

Large oval barbotine dish from the late 19th or early 20th century in the style of Bernard Palissy. Polychrome decoration of leaves and animals in relief on an almond green background imitating basketwork. We can see in trompe-l'oeil a turtle, a frog, a snake, a crayfish and two shells. It does not bear any mark, but is probably a production of Saint Clément or Lunéville.

Very good condition (Restoration not visible on 2 leaves of the decoration)

Width 40cm Depth 30cm Height 7cm Weight 2.1kg
