Description

Elegant Gondolier's Staff with Horse Head -
Napoleon III Period, 19th Century

Superb gondolier's staff dating from the Napoleon III period (19th century), refined and emblematic of Venetian elegance.

Its top is decorated with a finely sculpted horse's head, a symbolic element evoking nobility and power. The whole is made of copper and brass, offering a beautiful contrast of materials and patinas. The horse's head is mounted on a gold-colored ring allowing it to be unscrewed, adding a touch of ingenuity to this exceptional object. The number 29 can be read on it once unscrewed.

In very good general condition, it has a slight
