| Description |
|-------------|

India, 18th century - early 19th century, rare and very pretty group of three miniature bronze statues representing Hindu gods, the first seated on an oval throne in a prayer position, the second seated on a slightly raised circular throne and holding his attributes, the third seated on a square base and also holding his attributes. Fine patina of age enhancing the beauty of the pieces.

Good condition except for normal wear; obvious signs of great age.

Height: 42 mm, 37 mm and 31 mm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand.
